

The University of Kansas

University Registrar

If you do not have a United States Social Security Number, please disregard this letter.

Dear

October 21, 1999

The Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997 requires that universities report tuition payment information on its students. This information is used by many taxpayers as a basis for deductions. You or the person claiming you as a dependent may want to review the potential tax advantages of the Hope and Lifetime Learning tax credits by accessing the IRS Web Site: <http://www.irs.ustreas.gov/prod/hot/tax-law.html> or by consulting your tax advisor prior to the filing of your 1999 tax return.

Please complete and return the form below no later than December 10, 1999 so we can accurately report your payment information to the IRS. Correct any errors, fill in your Social Security Number and sign the form before mailing it to us at the address noted. If you lose the form, copies are available at: <http://www.ukans.edu/~registr/forms.html>.

Sincerely,

Richard C. Morrell, Ph.D.
